

We Tell Groups/Collectives/Community Media Centers

Brooklyn Information and Culture TV (BRIC TV)

BRIC TV is the first 24/7 television channel created by, for, and about Brooklyn, and serves as the borough's source for local news, Brooklyn culture, civic affairs, music, arts, sports, and technology. BRIC TV features programming produced and curated by BRIC, an arts and media nonprofit located in downtown Brooklyn, NYC. BRIC incubates and presents work by artists and media-makers reflecting the diversity of Brooklyn. BRIC House features a public media center, a contemporary art exhibition space, two performance spaces, a glass-walled TV studio, and artist work spaces. BRIC's programs include the BRIC Celebrate Brooklyn! Festival in Prospect Park, a renowned contemporary art exhibition series, Brooklyn Free Speech (Brooklyn's Public Access initiative) and BRIC TV (a nonprofit community TV channel and digital network). BRIC collaborates with producers, artists, creators, journalists, activists, community leaders, students, and storytellers. BRIC TV is an Emmy award-winning public access cable channel and the voice of Brooklyn, NY.